25 Plaintiff, Leslie Marks, hereinafter "Marks" hereby requests clarification of this Court's 26 June 27th, 2011 Order Denying Marks motion to deed the Order Vacating and Annulling the 27 Automatic Stay to TRA Partners as void. Marks respectfully seeks clarification of the 28 determination that the motion is "not well grounded."

29 With all due respect to this Court, Marks properly alleged that TRA Partners were NOT
30 and they admitted they were NOT creditors of Marks. TRA Partners filed no Proof of Claim,
31 and have presented NO EVIDENCE of any kind in any court, other than a handwritten receipt as 32 evidence of purchase for value. The Loan number upon which the foreclosure was based is NOT 33 a loan to which Marks has EVER had any obligation. Now Mark and her disabled son are

1 HOMELESS, as a direct result of the failure of this Court to protect her and her family from the 2 unlawful theft of her home. With all due respect, it appears to Marks this court would have
3 granted relieve to any party requesting such relief without any fair review of the evidence
4 submitted – and as in this case – whether or not they are even remotely related to the case and 5 entitled to the relief requested. As such, Marks respectfully requests, clarification with 6 specificity, of this Court's June 27th Order.

Case No. 11-43140 EDJ

LESLIE PATRICE BARNES MARKS,

ORDER DENYING MOTION

On May 19, 2011, the court entered its Order Vacating and Annulling Automatic Stay as to TRA Partners, LLC. On June 13, 2011, Leslie Barnes Marks, the above-named debtor (the "Debtor") filed her Motion to Determine Judgment to Annul the Automatic Stay as a Void Judgment. The court has reviewed the Debtor's motion, and concludes that it is not well-grounded. The Debtor's motion to void the May 19, 2011 Order Vacating and Annulling Automatic Stay is accordingly DENIED.
